It is now proposed to remove the Health camp on account of the danger to which the residents in close proximity to it are exposed as people from plague infected parts of the city take shelter in the Health camp sheds. A petition received at the Govt & Rev. Secretariat from Mr. N. Narayanaswamy Iyengar Basavangudi bringing to notice the source of danger to the health of himself and his family from the Health camp opposite his bungalow was forwarded to the Presidents 2nd Council for favour of disposal

In the President's letter no. 206 of 13th June 1910 it was stated that the Senior Surgeon and Sanitary Commr. who visited the locality said that he had no objection to the proposal then made of removing the Health camp & allotting sites. The Health Officer has now been asked to select a proper site for the Health Camp.

3) The opinion of the City Improvement Committee was not before the Mt Council, and the recommendation of the President is not supported accompanied by a copy of their resolution

4) Some of the residents of Sidhee Patta represented in August 1912 that as their houses were included for the extension of the city vegetable market they would be rendered homeless and requested that the land on which the Health camp stands may be allotted into sites and sold

A better site would be the fields opposite to Mr. Chandrasekhara Iyer's house. The Municipality will be making a lot of money by the sale of the land on which the present Health Camp stands. A portion of this amount might be well spent on the purchase of the fine shooting ground between the village - Gosthalle - and the Bell temple road & the Health camp intended therein. If however the Municipality could not part with money for the purchase of private land I prefer to the site now selected to the South of Cuntenkadu will of course have the preference to.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that the Health Camp sheds at the eastern extremity of the Basavangudi Extension were built in the year 1898 at the first outbreak of plague in the City when the locality all round was an open ground without any inhabited buildings. At present, the conditions are quite altered. Numerous costly dwelling-houses have sprung up to the North, South and West of the Camp. Also, construction of other dwelling houses is in progress to the East of it. The residents of these buildings are repeatedly complaining of the danger they are exposed to on account of their close proximity to the Camp where people from plague-infected portions of the City frequently take shelter, and thereby become the means of easily spreading the disease to the neighbouring localities. Such a state of things is said to have actually happened during the last general epidemic in the City in 1910-1911.

2. As it is essential therefore to shift the Camp elsewhere, in the interests of the Basavangudi Extension and, especially, the residents of the dwelling houses in its immediate neighbourhood, I beg that orders may be kindly passed for its transfer to a more suitable locality. The Health Officer has been asked to select a proper place for it.

3. The City Improvement Committee—to whom the question of shifting the Health Camp was referred for opinion-decided, after personal inspection of the spot that the Camp sheds

The matter was placed before the Municipal Council at their meeting held on the 26th Instant, when the Health Officer's proposal was accepted. A copy of the resolution is herewith forwarded.

2. The site measures 280 X 180 square feet and is at a distance of about a furlong from the Bull temple road as shown in the accompanying sketch. It is proposed to put up a small number of sheds, tentatively for the present, for the convenience of the people who may have to camp out during the plague season.
